

FRCS Ophthalmology Part 2 – Sample Multiple-Choice Questions

Sample MCQ - Single Best Answer questions:

1. In a patient with type 2 diabetes mellitus, diabetic macula oedema has been observed.

What is the major risk factor for the progression of maculopathy?

- A. Anaemia
- B. Hypercholesterolaemia
- C. Hypertension
- D. Obesity
- E. Smoking

Correct Answer: C

2. A patient with no pre-existing astigmatism is noted to have +4.00 diopters of astigmatism at 180 degrees 4 weeks following a straightforward suture free cataract surgery.

What does this indicate?

- A. Loose suture placed at 180 degrees
- B. Superiorly placed corneal incision
- C. Superiorly placed scleral tunnel vision
- D. Temporally placed corneal incision
- E. Tight suture placed at 90 degrees

Correct Answer: B